PRINCIPAL'S / SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL REPORT

Ebinport Elementary School is an urban school located in Rock Hill, South Carolina. Ebinport has distinguished itself on numerous occasions in past years by being recognized at the state and district level. These recognitions include receiving the state Healthy School Award in all 8 categories, receiving 4 state School Incentive Rewards, winning the district awards for DHEC's Recycling Award, along with winning a variety of teacher grants. With our school motto, "All students can learn," we provide quality education to students in grades K-5. Ebinport has an active PTO, which provides strong volunteer/support program (logging in 5000+ hours annually), along with 14 business partners who provide a variety of incentives and educational opportunities that enhance student learning.

Ebinport is located within the city limits and has a diverse student population of 605 students. Our surrounding community is mostly upper-middle class families, primarily Caucasian and Asian Pacific. Most minority students are bussed from neighborhoods throughout our city. According to Ebinport's database, the student population consists of 70% Caucasian, 1% American Indian, 3% Asian Pacific, 23% African American, and 3% Hispanic. Due to such diversity, the needs of Ebinport's students vary greatly and require varied resources.

Some of Our 2000-2001 accomplishments include the following:

The School Improvement Council, faculty and staff members, and parents completed the School Renewal Plan for the years 2000-2004.

We developed a professional library that provides research and support for Best Practices in elementary education.

We completed the application process and received Schools of Promise Flagship status.

We continued to participate in activities to maintain our status as one of South Carolina's "Healthy Schools".

Ebinport students have many opportunities to participate in programs and activities that are designed to help them learn and prepare them for future challenges. We are proud of our students, parents, and staff at Ebinport School. We are the BEST!
